WHY HIGH-VOLUME CORPORATE FOLIOS ACCUMULATE IN IEPF:

In institutional and executive portfolios, unclaimed dividend accumulations typically arise from seamless corporate migrations: change of primary residential addresses (e.g. from Vivarea, Jacob Circle), consolidation of bank accounts, bank IFSC modifications following institutional mergers, or historical non-dematerialization of original physical certificates. Under Section 124(6), these assets do not lapse; they remain legally reclaimable by the registered holder indefinitely upon proper procedural petition.
